

Kate and Jane Went to the Lake
(Tapper E + Open & Closed Syllables)

1. It was June. It was hot, and Kate did not like it.
2. Kate made a call to her pal Jane. Kate said, “Jane, it is so hot here. We need to go to a place that is not as hot. Can we go to a place like that?”
3. “We can go to the lake,” Jane said. “It will be less hot at the lake.”
4. “Yes!” Kate said. “Let’s go to the lake. That is the best place to go.”
5. Jane came to see Kate. She rode her bike to Kate’s home. Jane’s bike was white with red stripes. On her bike was a basket, and inside the basket was a box.
6. “What is in the box?” Kate said. “A jug of lemonade, a bag of ice, a bunch of grapes and a small blanket to sit on,” Jane said.
7. “That is a nice box to take to the lake,” Kate said. “Let’s go.”

8. Kate got her bike. Kate's bike was green. She and Jane rode to the lake. The lake was a mile from Kate's home.
9. Kate was on her green bike, and Jane was on her white bike with red stripes. Kate and Jane rode at the same pace.
10. At the lake, Kate and Jane set the blanket on the sand in the shade of a big tree. Jane got the box from her bike and set it on the blanket.
11. "This will be fun," Kate said. "It is not as hot here at the lake as it was at home."
12. Jane gave Kate a cup of lemonade with ice in it. "This lemonade has a nice, sweet taste," Kate said. "I like it."
13. Jane made a cup for herself and had a sip. Then she got the grapes from the box and set them on a plate. Kate and Jane ate the grapes.
14. "This is nice," Jane said. "I like it here."
15. Then Kate and Jane got up to go for a hike next to the lake. On the sand was a pile of flat stones. "Let's see if we can skip these stones on the lake," Kate said.

16. She got a stone and held it in her hand. "I will toss this stone and see if it skips on the lake," she said. The stone did skip, and Kate was glad.
17. Kate said, "Jane, toss a stone and make it skip." Jane held a stone in her hand and began to toss it in the lake. Plop! It did not skip. It sank.
18. "The stone must be flat when you toss it," Kate said. "That will help it skip." Jane did what Kate said to do. She held the stone so it was flat and began to toss it.
19. This time it did skip. "We can skip stones on the lake!" Jane said. "That makes me feel glad."
20. Then it was time to go home. Jane put the blanket, the cups and the plate inside the box. Then she put the box in the basket on her bike.
21. Kate got on her bike, and she and Jane rode home.
22. When Kate and Jane got home, it was less hot than it was before.
23. "I am glad that we went to the lake," Kate said. "I had a nice time," Jane said. "And it was not as hot as it was at home."
