

Stan and Paul at School

(Dips + Pals. Tapper E, Open & Closed syllables)

1. Stan and Paul went to the same school. The name of the school was May Street School. Stan and Paul were in the same room at the school. It was Room 2.

2. Stan and Paul liked to walk to school at the same time. It was fun to walk to school.

3. Before school, Stan's mom put food in a brown bag and gave it to him to take to school to eat at lunch time. At noon, Stan shared his food with Paul.

4. A few days a week, Paul's mom put food in a lunch box and gave it to Paul to take to school. Paul always shared his lunch with Stan. On Fridays, they would find yummy treats in Paul's lunch box.

5. After they ate, it was time to go outside to play on the playground.

6. One day, when Stan and Paul were outside on the playground, Stan looked down and saw something round on the grass by his foot. It was flat. It was brown. Stan crouched down to see it up close. "Wow! I found a coin!" Stan said in a loud voice.

7. Soon, a lot of children stood around Stan to see what all the fuss was about. "Stan found money! Stan found money!" they shouted.

8. "Yes. I found a coin," Stan said.

9. "I found a coin on the grass."

10. "What sort of coin is it?" a boy asked.

11. "It is a penny," Stan said.

12. "Is it a new penny?" the boy asked.

13. "I am not sure," Stan said.

14. "I am not sure if it is new. But it seems to me that it is not a new coin."

15. Paul looked at the penny and said, "All coins have dates on them. Look at the date on the penny to see if it is new."

16. Stan looked at the penny and saw a date on it. The date was 1877. "This is not a new penny at all," Stan said.

"It was made in the year 1877."

17. Stan put the penny in his brown lunch bag and took it home. When he got home, he took the penny out of the bag.

18. "Look, Mom!" Stan said.

19. "I found a penny on the ground at school. It was made in 1877, so it is not new."

20. Stan's mom looked at the penny and saw the date on it.

21. "This penny is rare," she said.

22. "It is not new at all. That means that only a few pennies like it are still around."

23. Stan's mom had a book about coins. She got it out to show to Stan. "Let's see what the book has to say about this penny," she said.

24. Stan's mom opened the book. She looked for the page about pennies made in 1877. When she found it she said, "Look, Stan! This penny is very rare. It has a lot more value than a new penny has."

25. "Wow!" Stan said.

26. "Can we sell the penny?"

27. "Yes, we can," said Stan's mom.

28. Stan's mom found a man who had a coin store. The man's name was Bob, and he paid money to boys like Stan that found rare coins. Stan showed Bob his rare penny.

29. Bob looked at the penny. He looked at the date on the penny. "Stan, this is a very rare coin," Bob said.

30. "Do you want to sell it?"

31. "Yes, I do," said Stan.

32. "Will you take four hundred dollars?" Bob asked.

33. "Yes! Yes!" said Stan.

34. "Yes!" said Stan's mom. Stan gave Bob the penny and Bob gave Stan four hundred dollars.

35. When they left the store, Stan's mom asked him what he wanted to do with the money. "Share it with the children at school!" Stan said.

36. So Stan's mom took him to a book store. Stan used the money to buy books for the children at school. "That was fun!" Stan said.
